

Everything with Feathers Flies

Number of players

This game is played with a minimum of 5 players and a maximum of 10 players.

Equipment

This game is played anywhere.

How to Play

1. The players choose a leader for the game who will call out an animal.
2. If that animal has feathers the other players should lift the arm and repeat the name of the animal said. If someone lifts the arm when an animal without feathers is called out he/she is eliminated.
3. The last person left is the winner and becomes the leader for the next game.

Forks forks knives

Number of players

This game is played with a minimum of 3 players and the more players the better.

Equipment

This game is played on the playground or close to the wall of the house or school.

How to Play

1. The players choose a leader for the game.
2. The leader must be backwards to the other players that stand in a row on the line. He will call "forks, forks, knives".
3. Afterwards he turns back to the other players. The aim of the game for the players is to get to the leader. The players have to move unseen by the leader. When he turns backwards they have to freeze - they have to stay without move.
4. The game goes on until the winner gets to the leader. If the leader sees someone in move, he changes his position with the player who becomes a leader.

Peshek goes round

Number of players

This game is played with a minimum of 5 players.

Equipment

This game is played on a playground.

How to Play

1.The players choose a leader for the game and they call him Peshek.

2.The other players make a circle and they kneel and bend heads down. They have to cover their faces with both hands and close eyes. They say rhyme

Peshek goes round

Dont look at him

If you look at him

You will get hit

3.Peshek goes round the circle and at the end of the rhyme he gently hits one of the players to the back.

4.The hit player has to chase Peshek round the circle of players and who gets first to empty place in the circle must get in and kneel. The player who is left outside is new Peshek and the game goes on.

Craftsmen

Number of players

The more players join the game the more fun!

Equipment

No equipment is needed.

How to Play

1. The players choose two craftsmen. The craftsmen go away from the players not to be heard and they choose a craft and how to present the craft.
2. Then they come to other pupils and say the letter their craft begins with and ends with and number of letters that it has got. Then they present the craft in silence. They cannot make any sounds.
3. Other players have to guess the craft. Who finds the craft becomes the craftsman and can choose other player to act the new craft with him.
